

Summer Reading Writing Prompts for 2 Billion Under 20: How Millennials Are Breaking Down Age Barriers and Changing the World by Stacey Ferreira and Jared Kleinert

Choose a prompt and write a paragraph answering the prompt. Use the rubric below to guide you. Include your name, student ID, and your 2nd block teacher's name on the paragraph. A typed answer is preferred but if this is impossible, a handwritten paragraph will be accepted.

1. Choose at least two stories from the book and describe how they have inspired you to achieve your dreams.
2. Describe what you learned from the book, citing at least two of the stories.

Grading Rubric:

50% The chosen writing prompt is addressed completely in a paragraph form. (Please write the prompt you chose at the top of the page.)

30% At least two stories are cited within the paragraph (You do not have to do in-text citations or a Works Cited page. Simply refer to two of the stories as you answer the questions.)

20% Answer is grammatically correct with no spelling errors.

For those students who read 2 Billion Under 20, this paragraph is due to Miss Matthews on Friday, September 9, 2016. You will not have to take a Canvas quiz. This will serve as your assessment. Miss Matthews will give your summer reading grade to your 2nd block teacher based on your response to your chosen writing prompt.
