SATURDAY MORNING, October 18th

- III. Sequoyah Elementary School Tour: 10:00 A.M. Martha Hill, recently retired Principal of Sequoyah ES, and current Principal, Alisha Hinton, will be our tour guides. Think back to the mid-forties...remember Mrs. McCarthy, our first grade teacher? We had split sessions in 1st grade...half of us were taught in the morning, and half were taught in the afternoon due to an unexpected number of 1st grade students. A long day for a teacher! I happen to still have my composition book of the poems I memorized and recited weekly in Ms. Dowell's 6th grade class, along with my Homework Notebook with Spelling Lists and nightly Homework Assignments. Even if you did not attend Sequoyah, you may have had children or grandchildren who did, so Everyone is Welcome!

SATURDAY NOON, October 18th

- IV. A Ladies' Luncheon for 1959 "girls" is scheduled for 12:00 P.M. at "The Paris Apartment" which is located in the Shops at Western Plaza near Fresh Market. We will have a choice of four selections, and the cost is $20 per person which includes your drink, meal, tax, and gratuity. Each of us will pay for our own meal when finished. Restaurant. It should be FUN!
