Is it possible to gain all required credits by May of junior year? _____ YES _____ NO

If YES, please complete the following:

1. Submit a typed Graduation Plan for review to your school counselor (attach to this form). The purpose of the graduation plan is to assess the student's understanding of their decision to graduate an entire year early and their understanding of the steps needed to reach their goal. The graduation plan must be typed and signed by the student and parent/guardian. This plan must outline specific reasons for wanting to graduate early AND detailed steps on how to achieve the post- secondary goal.
2. A meeting will be scheduled with the student, parent/guardian, counselor and assistant principal to review the Graduation Plan before a final decision is rendered.
3. By signing below, I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to obtain information from my future college(s) about how my scholarship awards may be affected by this decision.
