

YA PODCASTS

In today's world, we don't always have time to sit down and read reviews about new books, so my favorite thing to do is listen to a podcast or two while I'm working. Hearing other readers' insights, or even the authors', is a great way to see how you feel about a new book or be introduced to them!

ADVENTURES IN YA

Kristin and Sara are both book lovers and avid readers. Together their interests span through YA from paranormal to fantasy and beyond to contemporary.

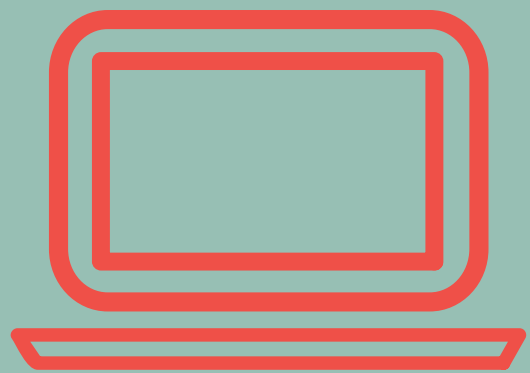

FOR REAL

For Real is a biweekly nonfiction podcast that puts the spotlight on new books and old favorites that tell it like it is, or at least try to.

HEY YA

From great new books to favorite classic reads, from news to the latest in on-screen adaptations, the Hey YA podcast is here to elevate the exciting world of young adult lit.

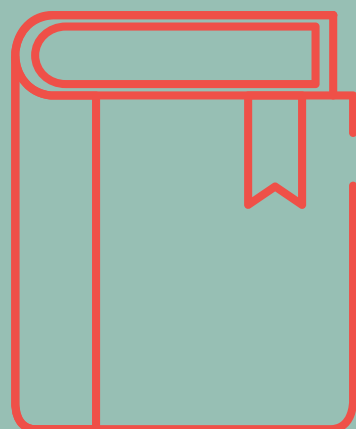

LOVE YA LIKE CRAZY

Welcome to Love YA Like Crazy, a podcast in which Carrie and Jake read and discuss young adult books. Spoilers and swearing abound!

WE ARE YA

YA books are longer than 280 characters. Conversations about YA should be too. Welcome to the We Are YA podcast! Over 7 episodes, host Anna Borges will be talking all all things YA with the amazing authors that make up the modern YA community.
