November at RYS...

It's been a wonderful October here at "The Yoak," even though the temperature has begun to fall (pun intended). Still, we must now say goodbye to October as we welcome November and get ready for our Fall Festival...a.k.a. Family & Community Night...which will be on the 15th (see below)! We will have a couple breaks for the students including the 6th (Election Day) and the 21st-23rd (Thanksgiving Break). Until then, our young men and women continue working hard at being SRR by leading by example (Safety), being Supportive, Cooperative, and Respectful to all, and taking Responsibility for all of their actions. Once again we want to thank all of you who work with us to make sure your children succeed...and for those of you new to RYS, we want to encourage you to do the same. Have a wonderful November. Go Vols!

FallFest...a.k.a. Family Night

Come join Seth Smith and the rest of the RYS faculty and staff for an evening of food, fun, and a chance to not only meet your child's teachers, but also local representatives from various community organizations including Pellissippi State, Regions Bank, and Job Corps. Knox County mayor Glenn Jacobs will also join us, so make plans to come Thursday, November 15th, starting at 4:30 pm.

Richard Yoakley would like to thank the following sponsors for our 2018 Fall Fest:

Exit Key Realty
Crystal Jacobs - Owner and Principal Broker

Michele Carringer - County Commissioner
