What is The Great Harvest?

The Great Harvest is the annual fundraiser that helps secure resources through financial gifts from parents/grandparents of Rocky Hill students, community members, and local and national businesses.

The Rocky Hill Elementary School Foundation Board disperses funds based on needs identified by members of the Foundation Board, PTO Board, and Rocky Hill Elementary School Administration.

Please return sponsorship pledge forms by May 19, 2021 to be entered in the drawing for a FAST PASS

Legacy of Great Harvest:

- Renovation of both playground areas which includes correcting drainage issues & installation of synthetic turf. (To be completed July 2021)
- The Clean Initiative- Purchased additional disenfectant blower & commercial carpet cleaner for enhanced sanitation of classrooms & common areas
- Completed renovation of the gymnasium to include new wood floor, new stage curtains & new sound system
- Increased student access to technology by providing 5 iPads for each classroom and purchasing computers for a new technology lab.
- Improved campus security with automated check-in system for school visitors and shatterproof covering for exterior windows.

Rocky Hill Elementary School Foundation

2021-2022

Fundraising Goal: $120,000

Funding Priorities:

Adding an outdoor classroom space for expanded learning environment

Provide funding and staff training for new online program, iReady, for math and reading that will impact all students

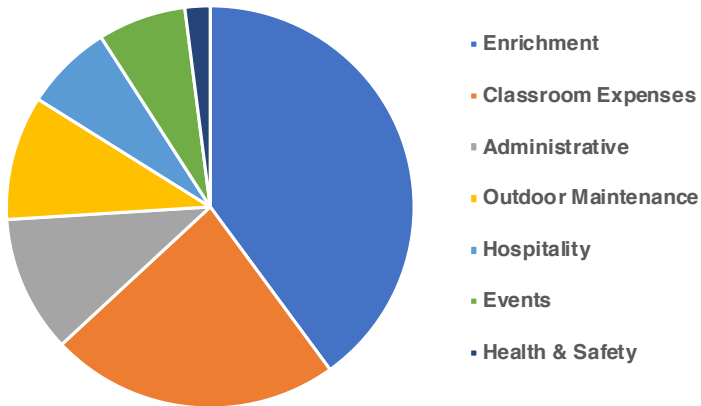

Adding a digital sign to the existing Rocky Hill sign in front of school to provide real time updates for school events, friendly reminders, and important messages

Continuing to provide necessary funding to ensure that we have a full time guidance counselor.

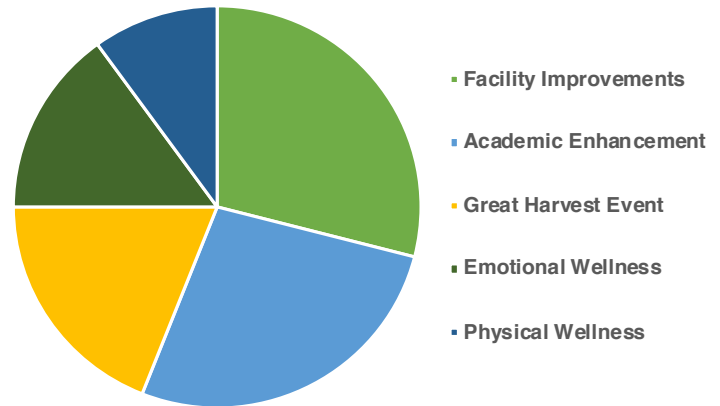

Continuing to fund the PTO yearly budget which provides family and community building events.

Why Donate to the RHES Foundation?

PTO Program Budget $30,000

Education of the Whole Child $90,000
