SEEK AND YOU WILL FIND!

This is the season when words like joy and peace are displayed all across the city. Beautiful lights are showcased on houses and holiday songs are heard in every store and on every radio station. Sometimes we're in the holiday spirit and sometimes we're not. That's okay, because we're all human! We have that right. I just want to extend a special challenge to you. Over this holiday season, I want you to find the joy in as many things as you can. You will be on a mission to find what brings you joy. (Hopefully, you'll find it in yourself, too!) Is it in the gifts you give? Is it in the gifts you receive? Is it spending time with your family? Is it quiet time with yourself? When you seek out the joy in things, miraculously more good things will start jumping out at you! Why not end this year and start a new year seeking the things that bring you joy. Here's the secret to finding joy, it starts with gratefulness. When you are grateful for the things around you, you are on your way to finding joy. And when you look into the eyes of your little one(s), (I mean cusp their little face(s) and bend down to their eye-level.) you will realize how much joy you really have. Tis the Season...!
