1. Haunted Knoxville Ghost Tours is a tour where you learn the history of Knoxville and do a paranormal investigation. You do have to book the tours and plan when you go because the Girl Scouts go every Saturday after 7pm. It is open everyday except Sunday, from 10am-8pm, and Mondays from 10am-2pm. The tours are rated 4.5 stars and there are trolley and walking tour. Each tour is about 2 hours long. The tickets are a bit pricey, 30$ to 50$, but if you have the money it would be worth it. This is in downtown but it should be easy to find because it is near Market Square.

2. Nightmare Hill At Cherokee Hills is a haunted house in the Cherokee Caverns. It is a good place for trick or treating and closer then Haunted Knoxville Ghost Tours. Entry is 15$ plus tax. It is rated 4.1 stars. It is good for younger kids. The actors stay in character and many think it is worth the 15$.
