EXEMPLAR:

Prompt: Would you rather eat pizza in the United States or in another country? Explain your opinion with evidence from the text.

It would be very interesting to try pizza from another country. Pizza from Australia sounds delicious. The most popular toppings in Australia are shrimp, pineapple, and barbecue sauce. These are all flavorful foods that would be great together. The sweetness from the pineapple and spicy from the barbecue would make the perfect pizza pair. Shrimp is also a great protein to add to any meal. Do you think you would like to try pizza from Australia? It would be a terrific experience.

Pizza, Pizza Everywhere

Pizza, pizza, pizza!

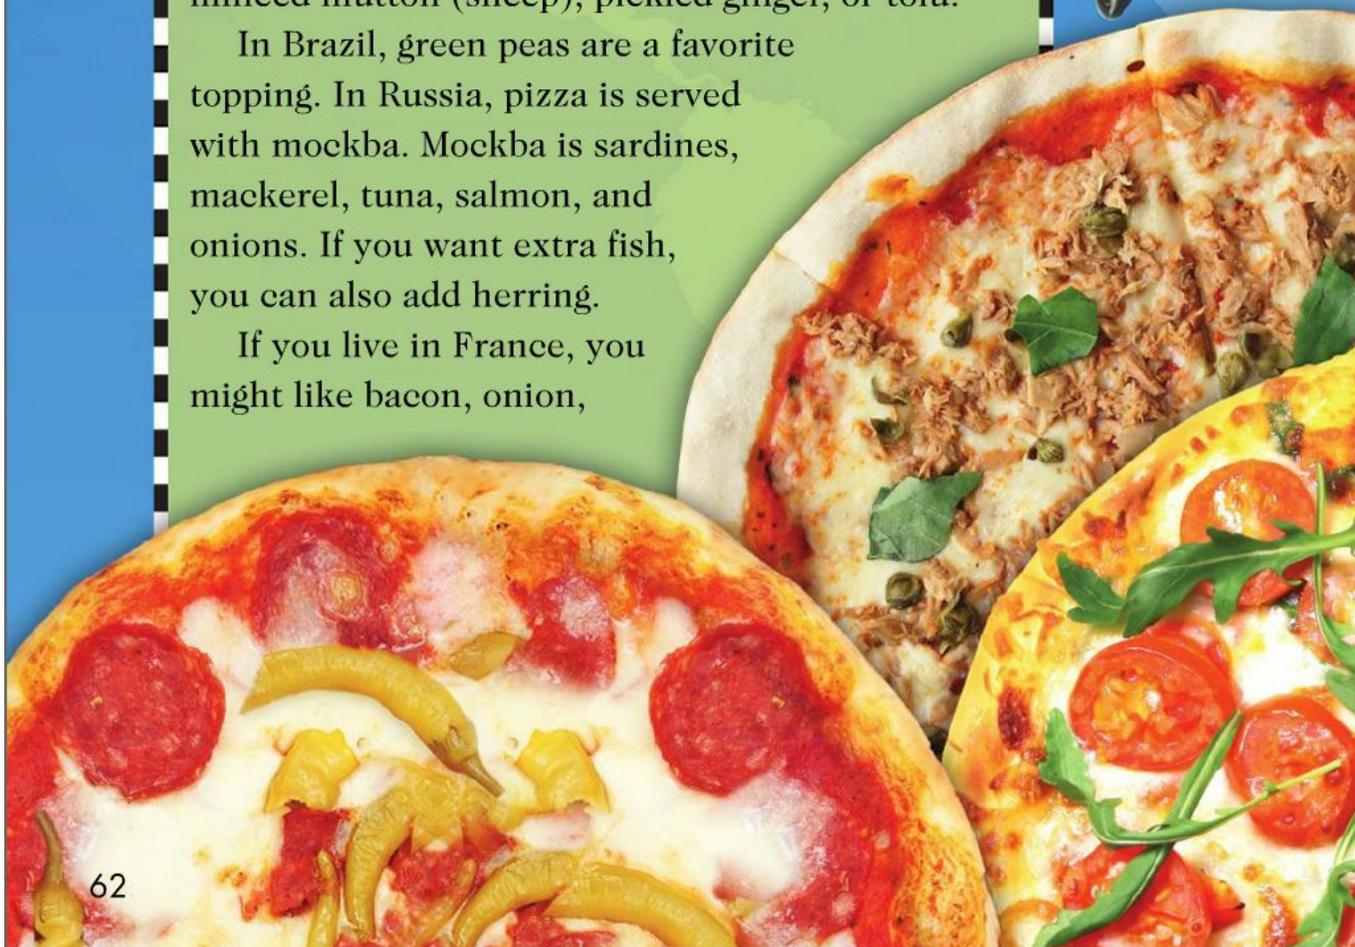

Everyone loves pizza. Did you know that many Americans eat 23 pounds of pizza a year? Did you know that pepperoni is the most popular pizza topping in the United States?

What kind of pizza is popular in other countries? Get ready to be surprised. It may not be the kind of pizza you're used to ordering!

In Japan, many people love pizza topped with squid, mayonnaise, potatoes, and bacon. In India, people like pizza topped with tandoori chicken, minced mutton (sheep), pickled ginger, or tofu.

In Brazil, green peas are a favorite topping. In Russia, pizza is served with mockba. Mockba is sardines, mackerel, tuna, salmon, and onions. If you want extra fish, you can also add herring.

If you live in France, you might like bacon, onion, and fresh cream on your pizza. Many people in Pakistan like pizza with curry on it. Fly over to Australia if you want pizza with shrimp, pineapple, and barbecue sauce.

Do you like coconut? If you do, you'd probably like the pizza from Costa Rica. And if you're in the Netherlands, you might like pizza with double cheese, double onions, and double beef.

So if you're willing to try different pizza toppings, grab your suitcase and passport! Maybe you can bring those pizza topping ideas back to the United States.
