

AP Language and Composition

Summer 2018

Future AP Lang Student:

This summer, you are to read In Cold Blood by Truman Capote. This read encompasses all that AP Lang will come to mean to you once the course is completed: argument is in everything, bias is everywhere, and our words – no matter how big or small – can strengthen or destroy.

Read this novel with a critical eye and be ready on day one to handle multiple assessments on this reading.

--Huisingsh and Weller